

Date: 11.09.2021; 1400.06.20

Patient's Name: F.A

Responsible Physician: Dr.Davari

Patient presentation:

A 52 year-old woman with left breast skin thickening since 99.9 and inflammatory breast cancer who underwent NAC (last one: 1400.5.4)

Physical exam: inflammatory breast cancer

MG & US: Left breast and axillary suspicious mass (33mm)

CNB: IDC, G3, ER+, PR+, HER2-, Ki67 60%

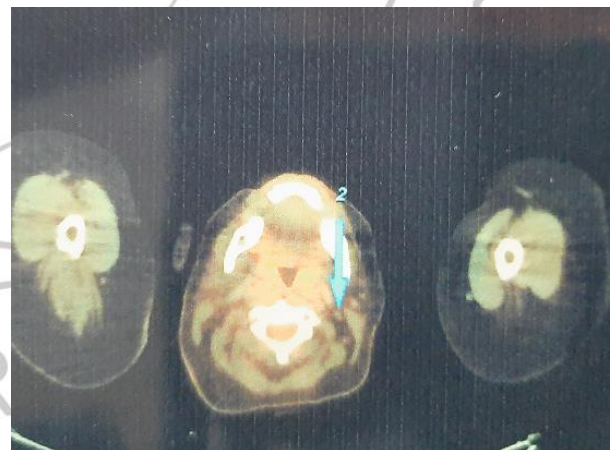

Question:

What's the next plan?

Is surgery recommended?

Recommendation:

1. Hormone therapy (letrozol) is considered at least for three months, then restaging and decision about surgery according to the restaging results.

مرکز تحقیقات بیماریهای پستان

Breast Disease Research Center