

Date: 11.11.2023; 1402/08/20

Patient's Name: Z.J

Responsible Physician: Dr.Esphandbod

Patient presentation: A 62 year-old woman that underwent right BCS and Radiotherapy in 1395. She had recurrence and underwent MRM in 1401 and has skin lesion in Mastectomy bed. Now she is suspicious to vascular lesion at surgery site.

Biopsy: High grade Angiosarcoma, 5*2*2.5 cm resected mass, Tumor size: 2*1.5 mm, Margins: Free.

CT scan: No metastasis.

Question:

What is the next plan?

Recommended plan:

- 1- Wide Local Excision
- 2- Reconstruction with flap
- 3- No need of Radiotherapy
- 4- Chemotherapy with Haluxan

Figure 1, 2: Skin lesion in Mastectomy bed.