

Date: 27.07.2024; 1403/05/06

Patient's Name: M.E

Responsible Physician: Dr.Esphandbod

Patient presentation: A 53 year-old lady with locally advance breast cancer (Triple Negative, Ki67: 40%) underwent chest CT scan for metastasis work up. Chest CT scan showed pulmonary nodules in lung that was suspicious for lung metastasis.

Question:

What is the next treatment plan?

Recommended plan:

- CT guided biopsy of the pulmonary nodules to confirm metastasis.

Figure 1: Pulmonary nodule suspicious for metastasis.

Breast Disease Research Center