

Date: 05.10.2024; 1403/07/14

Patient's Name: M.J

Responsible Physician: Dr.Gomar

Patient presentation: A 40-year-old with locally advanced left breast cancer (Triple negative, Ki67:80%, Lymph node: positive).

She was treated by Neoadjuvant Chemotherapy, Mastectomy, Chemotherapy and Immunotherapy.

Now she has skin lesion in mastectomy site.

Question:

What is the next treatment plan?

Recommended plan:

- Radiotherapy then surgery.

Figure 1: Skin lesion in mastectomy site.

Breast Disease Research Center