

Date: 30.11.2024 ; 1403/09/10

Patient's Name: HA

Responsible Physician: Dr. Sarkarde

Patient presentation

A 51 Y/O F presented with Rt. breast mass & lymphadenopathy in Lt. axillary (1402)

CNB (Rt. Breast):

IDC III, ER+, PR: 30-40%, Her2:-, ki67: 40%

CNB (Lt. Axilla) :

IDC III, ER+, PR:10%, Her2: -, Ki67:60-70%

Bone scan: NL

Abdominal CT: NL

Thorax CT:

Central soft tissue mass & satellite dentistry in right breast,

Irregular cutaneous thickening in lateral aspect of right breast.

Several large LNs up to 56*44 mm in right axilla, retro pectoral, supraclavicular.

Left axillary LN measured 18*8mm

She received NAC then underwent Bilateral MRM (according to MDT's decision)(1403/4)

Lymphadenopathy in right supraclavicular appeared during adjuvant XRT, CNB was done:

Positive for malignancy

Question:

Next plan?

Recommended plan:

Lymph node excisional biopsy , PET CT