

Date: 29.12. 2024; 1403/10/08

Patient's Name: NG

Responsible Physician: Dr. Esfandbod

Patient Presentation:

A 69 Y/O F presented with abdominal ascites

US: normal

Abdominal CT/MRI:

Lytic lesions in spine

Cytology of ascites:

No malignancy

Upper GI Endoscopy:

No gross pathology

Breast sonography/mammography:

Axillary lymphadenopathy

Question

Next plan?

Recommended plan:

Mammography reviewed:

Lt. axillary Ln was positive. Therefore, CNB should be done.

Breast Disease Research Center